OLTD 510 - Learning Outcomes

This course will enable students to demonstrate capstone learning from the OLTD Diploma Program, including understanding and familiarity with the core program outcomes:

- Be familiar common terms, definitions and elements related to online environments
- Demonstrate basic competency with design and implementation within a variety of online learning environments and tools
- Plan learning opportunities most suitable to the strengths and challenges of a variety of environments
- Develop and design intentional learning activities suitable for the appropriate environment and the learner
- Understand, design and work to support student success;
- Undertake engagement with environment through online facilitation for effective learning
- Critically assess and evaluate resources for best practice in online learning
- Create assessment and evaluation methods/tools most suitable to the strengths and challenges of the specific environment
- Scaffold digital citizenship from K-12 to professional level of educators
- Integrate current cognitive learning and brain-based learning theory
- Examine current research around best practices and emerging practices
- Develop practical and technical skills in all phases of concept, development, design, implementation, etc.
- Develop skills to optimize learning experiences through personalization